1. France signed an agreement with the U.S. called the Louisiana Purchase. Why was this agreement important?

This agreement doubled the amount of land that the U.S. owned. This land had a lot of resources.

2. Is the original document signed by France and the U.S. a primary or secondary source? Explain.

It is a primary source because it was created during the time that the agreement took place.

3. Why would Native Americans not have been happy about the Louisiana Purchase?

The land that was purchased in the Louisiana Purchase was home to Native Americans. When Americans began moving to the land, Native Americans were forced to leave.
